By participating in a local solar farm, you are promoting equitable access to solar in your community, creating local green jobs, and raising money for local nonprofits that partner with Neighborhood Sun.

Community solar allows you to enjoy the benefits of solar power being generated in a remote location. Participants often subscribe for a portion of a larger solar installation, usually located in a field or on a ...

Review approved solar contractors in your area and best practices when choosing a contractor to install solar at your home, small business, or multifamily building.

Home solar panels are rapidly becoming mainstream. We'll help you decide if a home solar panel system is right for you.

Learn about installing and generating your own clean energy for your home with solar and home batteries.

Private solar companies develop and construct community solar projects on Long Island, and then residents can subscribe into a project to receive energy credits, which reduce the cost of their own ...

We provide an expert installation of solar power on your home/farm to increase sustainable energy use statewide in Long Island. Our team is committed to offering effective solutions that are ultra ...

Solar energy is radiation from the Sun that is capable of producing heat, causing chemical reactions, or generating electricity. The total amount of solar energy incident on Earth is ...

Community Distributed GenerationNet MeteringCustomer Benefit ContributionRemote CreditingWholesale Market ParticipationBillingGreen PowerIncentivesRemote Crediting is a program that enables the generation of renewable energy at one location to be credited to the electricity bill of another. Through this program, a generator host can designate up to ten satellite customers to receive these credits. The host itself must be one of these customers if it wants credits applied to its bill, while th...See more on cenhud #b_results
